

invitationonly

JOIN ExeterLiving AT THE CITY'S BEST SOCIAL EVENTS

Bright Sparks

Football legend Sir Geoff Hurst was guest of honour at a masquerade ball held in aid of Sparks, a charity seeking treatments and cures for conditions that affect pregnancy, babies and children. Guests donned masks, and amid the revelry everyone dug deep during a charity auction. The ball raised a staggering £8,500 in total

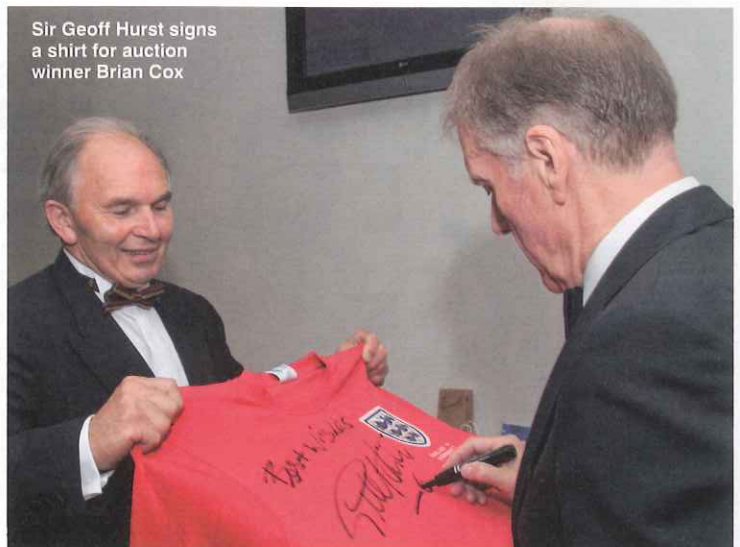

Sir Geoff Hurst

Guests playing a fundraising game

Guests sported colourful masks

Sir Geoff Hurst signs a shirt for auction winner Brian Cox

The ball was supported by builder Snibor Ltd

Band Thick As Thieves who performed on the night